

EMERGENCY RADIOLOGY (UK EDITION)

British Society of Emergency Radiology
European Society of Emergency Radiology

MAY 2018

Welcome to our first newsletter of 2018!

- The British Society of Emergency Radiology (BSER) and European Society of Emergency Radiology (ESER) were established to promote enthusiasm for, and interest in, emergency imaging and disseminate information relating to clinical, educational and research aspects of emergency radiology.
- This newsletter will update UK-based radiologists on the many Emergency Imaging activities available at a national and European level.

BSER ANNUAL MEETING

Fourth Annual Meeting | Emergency Imaging: Top to Toe
Organised by BSER in partnership with Infomed Research and Training on Tuesday 26 and Wednesday 27 June 2018, at Holiday Inn - City Centre, Liverpool

The BSER is hosting its 4th annual meeting on Tuesday 26 and Wednesday 27 June 2018 at the Holiday Inn in Liverpool.

This interactive, hands-on meeting offers a variety of talks given by inspirational figures from across the country, as well as practical case-based sessions delivered with iMac workstations.

Look forward to the next of our quarterly newsletters in August 2018!

EUROPEAN DIPLOMA IN EMERGENCY RADIOLOGY

The ESER is proud to introduce the European Diploma in Emergency Radiology (EDER), details of which are available on the ESER website.

A curriculum for the EDER was developed as concrete implementation of the European Training Curriculum Level III for Emergency Radiology. We are happy to announce this Diploma is endorsed by the European Society of Radiology (ESR).

ESER WEBINARS #FOAMRAD

As part of the FOAM (Free Open Access Medical Education) initiative, the ESER have devised a programme of free educational webinars for all active ESER members. Register on their website.

The next few webinars will be held in summer:

- Intervention, angiography - Tuesday 5 June
- Chest, non-traumatic - Tuesday 19 June
- Abdomen, non-traumatic - Tuesday 10 July

INTERNATIONAL DAY OF RADIOLOGY

Emergency Radiology was selected as the theme for the most recent International Day of Radiology last November.

A free e-book entitled 'HELP - Emergency Medical Imaging' was created as part of this and is now available to download on their website:
